Key Causes of the War Several interconnected factors precipitated the outbreak of hostilities: – Border Disputes: The ambiguous border between Texas and Mexico, with differing interpretations of the Rio Grande versus the Nueces River, created flashpoints. – Manifest Destiny: American expansionism motivated territorial ambitions that clashed with Mexican sovereignty. – Political Instability in Mexico: Mexico’s internal struggles, including leadership changes and regional rebellions, weakened its ability to defend its northern territories. – Diplomatic Failures: Negotiations failed to resolve disputes, and provocations such as
