Understanding What It Means to Be a Starbucks Partner

Who Are Starbucks Partners?

At Starbucks, employees are referred to as "partners." This terminology reflects the company's philosophy of fostering a collaborative and inclusive environment where every team member plays a vital role in delivering the Starbucks experience. Partners are more than just employees; they are valued members of a global community committed to creating a welcoming atmosphere for customers.

Core Values of Starbucks Partners

Being a Starbucks partner involves embracing the company's core values, which include:

- Creating a culture of warmth and belonging
- Acting with courage and transparency
- Delivering the highest quality products and service
- Supporting sustainability and ethical sourcing
- Engaging in community involvement and social impact

Getting Started: Onboarding and Training

Applying and Joining as a Partner

To become a Starbucks partner, candidates can apply online through the Starbucks Careers website or visit local stores for in-person inquiries. The application process typically involves:

- Submitting an online application or resume
- Participating in an interview (often virtual or in-store)
- Completing a background check and drug screening (where applicable)
- Receiving a job offer and onboarding details

2 New Partner Orientation

Once hired, new partners undergo a comprehensive orientation program that covers:

- Company history and values
- Health and safety procedures
- Customer service standards
- Operational procedures and POS systems
- Benefits overview

This onboarding process ensures new partners are equipped with the knowledge and tools needed to succeed.

Training Programs and Development
