australian aboriginal people have lived in harmony with the earth for perhaps as long as 100 000 years in their words since the first day in this absorbing work lawlor explores the essence of their culture as a source of and guide to transforming our own world view while not romanticizing the past or suggesting a return to the life of the hunter gatherer voices of the first day enables us to enter into the mentality of the oldest continuous culture on earth and gain insight into our own relationship with the earth and to each other this book offers an opportunity to suspend our values prejudices and eurocentrism and step into the dreaming to discover a people who rejected agriculture architecture writing clothing and the subjugation of animals a lifestyle of hunting and gathering that provided abundant food of unsurpassed nutritional value initiatic and ritual practices that hold the origins of all esoteric yogic magical and shamanistic traditions a sexual and emotional life that afforded diversity and fluidity as well as marital and social stability a people who valued kinship community and the law of the dreamtime as their greatest possessions language whose richness of structure and vocabulary reveals new worlds of perception and comprehension a people balanced between the dreaming and the perceivable world in harmony with all species and living each day as the first day voices of the first day is illustrated throughout with more than 100 extraordinary photographs bark paintings line drawings and engravings many of these photographs are among the earliest ever made of the aboriginal people and are shown here for the first time in this the first collection of ecocritical essays devoted to australian contexts and their writers australian and usa scholars settlers invaders temporary visa holders comment on the transliteration of sea land and interior through the works of major and minor authors and through their own experience with the bioregion the littoral zone is the starting point in this fresh approach to reading literature and is organised around the natural environment rainforest desert mountains coast islands antarctica there s the beach where sexual and spiritual crises occur the wheatbelt area the most visible clearance line on the planet desert literature camel trekking and the transformation of a salt flat into an inland island new age literature that appropriates aboriginals and their cultures as the healing poultice for an ailing and dispirited west a re examination of pastoralism and the feet of millions of sheep that have done unspeakable damage to soils an inquiry into whether judith wright s work can persuade us to rejoice in the world an investigation of the limestone plains home of the bush capital and the bogong moth of bananas cane toads and the great barrier reef in tropic queensland of national parks and guesthouses where the mountains meet the sea a discursive approach to temperate islands that covers sealing soldier settlement and sea country pastoral and finally to antarctica where an initial utopian approach gives way to an emphasis on its stark timeless icescape as a minimalist backdrop for human dramas the author terrain is no less grand in its scope poets playwrights novelists and non fiction writers are discussed across the broad range of contexts that constitutes the littoral zone known as australia science fiction loves strangeness it relishes oddities even when it piles on fear and dystopian loathing the technical term for a fascination with the strange and alien is xenophilia just as the term for a terror of the strange is xenophobia at its core then science fiction is xeno fiction so science fiction seeks out the strange roams far from home in space and time looks with avid eagerness upon the ways of the others human or alien it participates in brilliantly lighted imagination in their strange lives in this second gathering from van ikin s critical journal science fiction a review of speculative literature writers of the alien are investigated with wit and insight g travis regier follows the other into its own home accompanying those experts in the alien c j cherry and samuel r delany in the book s long key essay terry dowling pursues the art of xenography as exemplified by jack vance s general culture novels three expert commentators look into booker prize winner peter carey s postcolonial and postmodern frolics into alternative realities and the xeno fictions of isaac asimov greg egan mary gentle ursula k le guin naomi mitchison neal stephenson and stanley weinbaum are read as their road maps into the strange eleven revealing essays on speculative fiction by some of the best critics in the field in their startling new book steven and evan strong challenge the out of africa theory based on fresh examination of both the dna and archeological evidence they conclude that modern humans originated from australia not africa the original australians referred to by some as aborigines like so many indigenous peoples are portrayed as backward and primitive yet as the strong demonstrate original australians had a rich culture which may have sown the first seeds of spirituality in the world they had the technology to make international seafaring voyages and have left traces in the americas and possibly japan southern india egypt and elsewhere they practiced brain surgery invented the first hand tools and had knowledge of penicillin this book brings together 30 years of intensive research in consultation with elders in the original Australian community among their conclusions are the following there is evidence that humans existed in Australia 40 000 years before they existed in Australia there were migrations of original Australians in large boats throughout the Indian Pacific Rim three distinct kinds of Homo Sapiens are found in Australia there is evidence from the Americas that debunks the Out of Africa theory the spiritual influence of the Aborigines is reflected in the religions of the world

Raye is in love his life on the East Coast is unfulfilled without her she lives in another country he takes a summer off from his busy graduate school life to be with her but his journey to get out of his trap is interrupted by a mysterious messenger in the most unlikely of places Raye is taken off his planned course and taken unwittingly on a path of his initiation and preparation for the girl of his dreams who had previously rejected him for his incompatibility he is stunned by the messenger's down to earth delivery of unearthly intelligence and the message of timely incisive magic with seductive mystery Raye is mesmerized by the messenger's golden arm bracelet of Uraeus which epitomizes the potency of the revelation he receives there is a battle in his heart he must win it to be with the one he sought in the beginning will he see the true source of the light he is illuminated with from the New York Times bestselling author of the Unteachables Gordon Korman comes a hilarious middle grade novel about a group of kids forced to unplug at a wellness camp where they instead find intrigue adventure and a whole lot of chaos perfect for fans of Korman's Ungifted and the Masterminds series as well as Carl Hiaasen's Eco Mysteries as the son of the world's most famous tech billionaire spoiled Jett Baranov has always gotten what he wanted so when his father's private jet drops him in the middle of the Arkansas wilderness at a place called the Oasis Jett can't believe it he's forced to hand over his cell phone eat grainy veggie patties and participate in wholesome activities with the other kids who he has absolutely no interest in hanging out with as the weeks go on Jett starts to get used to the unplugged life and even bonds with the other kids over their discovery of a baby lizard turned pet needles but he can't help noticing that the adults at the Oasis are acting really strange Jett is determined to get to the bottom of things but can he convince everybody that he is no longer just a spoiled brat who is making trouble
